Prof. Stephen Barnes
Assistant Dean, Graduate and International Programs and Global Professor PennState Dickinson Law School, U.S.A.

Prof. Stephen Barnes has done his M.B.A. from George Washington University, and his J.D. from the University of Oregon. Before this, he was a visiting law professor at the China University of Political Science and Law in Beijing and also served as Penn State Law China Programs Director.

Prof. Stephen oversees LL.M., S.J.D., and Pre-LL.M. admissions, international student services, certificate programs, student exchanges, and the visiting scholar program at Penn State Law. Earlier, he lived for 8 years in China where he is an honorary law professor at the China University of Political Science and Law in Beijing and also a visiting professor at other Chinese law schools. Prof. Stephen is proficient in French, Chinese, and Swedish, and is energized by the rich diversity talented international students bring to Penn State Law. On Steve's "perfect day" you'll see him on his stand-up paddleboard on an ocean or nearby lake; and, making "s'mores" over a campfire with family and students.

Sir, we welcome you to Lloyd!

Saturday-20-Sept.-2025

Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM is designed for the Senior batches of B.A.LL.B. / B.Com.LL.B. (05 years) and LL.B. (03 Years) with the aim to equip them with know-how of planning and processing their academic life during the law school and professional life after the law school. As the student steps-up in the space of professional legal education and internships, these programs will help them ease in transition to profession. Further this program will enable students at this juncture to make quintessential career choices for the life, time and work after law school. These sessions will be crystalizing the career opportunities, industrious guidance and professional progressions in interactions with the judges, law practitioners, legal professionals, legal academics and experts.
