Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

RCC TOWN HALL | INTRODUCTION TO RCC & SELECTION OF NEW RCC MEMBERS

ABOUT RCC

The Recruitment Coordination Committee (RCC) is a student-driven initiative that facilitates placements at Lloyd Law College and Lloyd School of Law. We assist final-year students during their placement season and ensure they are well-prepared to enter the professional world.

The Committee comprises both final-year and pre-final year students, working closely with academic leadership to drive outreach, training, and recruitment processes. Over the past years, RCC has actively collaborated with industry experts and recruiters, successfully securing more than 100 offers for eligible batches in the previous recruitment cycle.

Building on this experience, the RCC Executive Committee will consist of 16 members: 7 from the final year (already selected) and 9 to be inducted as new RCC Members from the pre-final year batches—B.A. LL.B. (2023–2028) 4 Members, B.Com. LL.B. (2023–2028) 1 Member, and LL.B. (2025–2028) 4 Members.

AGENDA: TOWN HALL

- Introduction to RCC: Role, processes, and achievements
- Roadmap and structure of the RCC Executive Committee
- Presentation of the shortlisted candidates for new RCC Members (Pre-Final Year)
- Selection of 9 new RCC Members who will join RCC and represent their batches in due course

SHORTLISTED CANDIDATES FOR FINAL ROUND

As part of this process, RCC invited applications from pre-final year students interested in joining as new RCC Members. Each applicant was rigorously assessed through interviews, along with evaluation of disciplinary records, attendance, and academic performance.

Based on this assessment, the new RCC Members (Pre-Final Year) have been shortlisted. From this pool, 9 candidates will be selected during the Town Hall to join the RCC Executive Committee and represent their respective batches during the placement cycle.
