Yi Farishtey: Accident First Responder Training

Yi ROAD SAFETY

Every year, thousands of lives are lost on Indian roads—not just from accidents, but from the critical "Golden Hour" when immediate intervention could save a life. Yi's Accident First Responder Training programme transforms ordinary citizens into "Farishtey" (angels) who can be the difference between life and death.

What We Teach

Immediate Response Protocols

How to secure an accident scene and protect both victims and responders

CPR & Basic Life Support

Hands-on practice with professional equipment

Trauma Management

Addressing bleeding, fractures, and shock before medical help arrives

The Golden Hour

Understanding why the first 60 minutes are critical for survival

Yi Farishtey : Accident First Responder Training

Thur.-23-April-2026

Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings From Lloyd Academic Community!

Young Indians (Yi) is a movement for Indian Youth to converge, lead, co-create, and influence India's future. As an integral part of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), a non-government, not-for-profit, industry-led and an industry-managed organization playing a proactive role in India's development process. Formed in the year 2002, Yi has created a platform for young Indians to work towards realizing the dream of a developed nation. The Yi membership includes young progressive Indians between the age group of 21-45 years and comprises entrepreneurs, professionals, and achievers from different walks of life.
