Find and click on the "Academic" tab on your dashboard.

Step 3: Choose Optional Subject

Within the Academic section, you will find an option for selecting your optional subject. Click on it.

The screenshot displays the Lloyd Law College student portal. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with 'Optional Subject' highlighted. The main dashboard shows an overview of academic performance with sections for Time Table, Attendance, Due Fee, and Media Gallery. A 'Subject' dropdown menu is open, showing a list of subjects: Law of Evidence (BL-9003), Civil Procedure Code And Limitation Act (BL-9002), and Code of Criminal Procedure (BL-9001).

Step 4: Select from Drop-down

A drop-down menu will appear. Choose your desired optional subject from the list.

The screenshot shows the 'Optional Subject' selection form. The 'Choose Optional Subject' radio button is selected and highlighted with a red box. A red arrow points to the 'Subject' dropdown menu, which currently shows '--Select--'. Below the dropdown is a 'Note' text area and 'Cancel' and 'Submit' buttons.

Step 5: Opt for Additional Subject (if applicable)

If you need to opt for an additional subject, navigate to the next tab and follow the provided instructions.

The screenshot shows a web interface for selecting an optional subject. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a hamburger menu icon and the text 'Lloyd Law College'. Below this, the page title is 'Optional Subject'. A navigation breadcrumb shows 'Quick Link | Subject | Syllabus | Material | Live Class | Assignment | Submission | Internet'. There are three tabs: 'Adopted', 'Choose Optional Subject', and 'Choose Optional Additional', with the last one being active and highlighted by a red box. Below the tabs, there is a 'Subject' dropdown menu with 'Nothing selected' as the current selection. A red arrow points to this dropdown. Below the dropdown is a 'Note' text area. At the bottom of the form are 'Cancel' and 'Submit' buttons.

Remember, your choice of optional subject can have a significant impact on your academic path. Take your time to explore your interests and consider your future goals before making your selection.
