EDNECTAR AI SIMULATED CRIMINAL TRIAL

Workshop for B.A.LL.B./B.Com.LL.B./LL.B.

Tue.-20-Jan.-2026

Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

In pursuit of its legacy to make students profession ready, Lloyd have introduced a novel and innovative project – Ednectar. Ednectar is the world's first AI simulated Criminal Trial Platform. It uses state of the art, cutting-edge technology coupled with the essentials of Criminal Law to mentor and prepare the users for nuances of Courtroom exchange in a Criminal Trial. This workshop will give the students an insight into the Indian Criminal Justice System, will help them in accessing and exploring the platform and will also introduce them to various USPs of Ednectar.

Introduction to Ednectar and Complaint Filing ::

- 0-05 minutes: Introduction to Ednectar
- 05-15 minutes: Overview of platform features
- 15-35 minutes: Procedural and Practical Applications of Criminal Laws - Overview of criminal procedure (e.g., BNSS Sections 173, 174). - Focus on complaints to Police: Definition, cognizable vs. non-cognizable offenses.
- Practical tips on filing complaints (verbal, written, online). - Interactive Q&A. –
- 35-60 minutes: Hands-On Drafting of Complaints - Explain complaint formats. - Task: Draft one complaint for police station (e.g., theft scenario) and one via PCR simulation (e.g., assault). - Use Ednectar to input drafts. - Brief group sharing.

RESOURCE PERSONS :: Prof. Mariyam Khan, Prof. Saurabh Singh Rathore, Prof. Wasiullah.

ATTENDANCE IN-CHARGE :: Batch Faculties class as per Time Table will take the attendance in the Ednectar Lab in the beginning of the session.

VENUE :: Ednectar Lab. 7th Floor, Lloyd School of Law
