Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

Skills are our tools. Legal skills are imperative tools for legal practice and profession be it litigation, corporate lawyering, judicial services, research or academics, advisory, consultancy etc. READING, WRITING, SPEAKING are the most important basic skills of legal profession. These skills are required for client counselling, legal drafting, advocacy and are demonstrated through IRAC, determination of ratio-decidendi and obiter dicta, wiring a case comment, memorial writing, essay and speech writing, report writing, judgment writing, drafting arbitration advocacy pleadings and arbitration award writing, trial preparation and drafting and filling of trial documents, treaty negotiation and treaty writing, Legislative drafting, drafting of transaction documents (like red herring reports, Due Diligence Report, term sheets) etc. All these skills are mandatory tools in legal professional employability.

All the above mandatory legal skills are acquire and learnt through our skills centres. Debate Society, Moot Court Society, LIMA, CLD, LTAC, LCPC, CLPC, LCAAC, LWPAC, LASEC. These are student-faculty-alumni run societies and centres which organises internal competitions and select-coach our students teams for participation in all kinds of competitions at national and international level. These competitions span from 01 week to 01 year. Students invest their valuable time and effort, learn and perform over a period of time in these competitions around the world making themselves LEARN & MASTER EXACTLY WHAT IS REQUIRED IN THE LEGAL PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT.

Lloyd has the privilege of supporting and guiding academically and financially its students over the decade in participating, preparing and performing at the best competitions at the national and internal level. In last 10 years, over 3000 students of Lloyd have travelled to participate, perform and has been winners of various awards in all parts of India and south Asia to all the best Debate, Moots, Trial competitions. Similarly, over 300 students of Lloyd have travelled to participate, perform and has been awarded in all parts of world to all the best Debate, Moots, Trial competitions. We are proud of our students.

To enhance, guide and support better, we are coming up with the Lloyd Achievements Scholarship Policy 2025-26. Students / achievers will apply and the scrutiny committee will assess the claims of the students on the Achievement Scholarships based on the following parameters;
