SPORTS MEET

(12th-14th FEBURARY 2026)

Respect and Sportsmanship Rule | General Guidelines Umang 4.0

The primary objective of the "Umang" event is to foster a spirit of respect, sportsmanship, and inclusivity among all participants, regardless of their individual talents and abilities.

1. Respect for All: All participants, organizers, and attendees must show respect and courtesy towards each other. Discrimination, harassment, or any form of disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated.

2. Fair Play: All competitive events, including all sports event, should be conducted with fairness and integrity. Cheating, unsportsmanlike conduct, or any attempts to gain an unfair advantage are strictly prohibited.

3. Uniform: The Lloyd prescribed T-shirt and I'd Card and is mandatory for every participant. Failing which will lead to the disqualification from the event.

4. Reporting Time: The participant must report at 8:00 AM for attendance and the participation verification through respective faculty coordinators, failing which will lead to disqualification.

5. Notification of Fixture: The fixture will be notified at the Inaugural Ceremony of Umang

   4.0 i.e., on 12 February 2026, 8:00 AM at Football Ground, Campus 2.

6. Team Composition: The ‘team’ shall only compose of the students of the same batch, violation of the same will lead to serious consequences under Rule 15.

   Explanation: A team composed of ‘Batch 2022-27’ will not have any players except from the students of ‘Batch 2022-27’

7. Inclusivity: "Umang" encourages inclusivity, meaning that all students have the opportunity to participate and showcase their talents. No registered participants should be excluded on the basis of their gender, age, background, or abilities.

8. Team Spirit: In team events, participants should demonstrate teamwork, cooperation, and good sportsmanship. Winning is important, but the manner in which the game is played is equally significant.

9. Adherence to Rules: Participants should adhere to the rules and regulations of each event as specified by the organizers. Ignorance of the rules is not an excuse for violating them.

10. Respect for Facilities: All participants are responsible for the proper use and care of the event facilities, equipment, and any resources provided. Vandalism or misuse of these resources is unacceptable.

11. Safety First: Safety is a top priority. Participants should follow safety instructions and guidelines provided for each event. Any reckless or dangerous behavior that may lead to injury is strictly prohibited.

    The college authority and the organizing committee shall only be responsible for a Basic First-Aid Medical Support.

12. Conflict Resolution: In case of disputes or conflicts during any event, participants are encouraged to bring the matter to the attention of the organizers for prompt resolution. The participants are strictly advised not to take steps on their own motion. The decision of the Organizing Committee shall be final and binding.

13. Clashes of event: In case of the clashes of the events the organizers shall not be liable. Participants are required to manage the participation of their respective events on their own.

14. Feedback and Improvement: Constructive feedback on the event's organization, conduct, or any issues related to respect and sportsmanship is always welcomed for the purpose of improving future "Umang" events. Participants are encouraged to bring any conduct to the notice of the core Organizing Committee or faculty coordinator.

15. Consequences: Violations of this "Respect and Sportsmanship Rule" may result in disqualification, removal from the event, or other appropriate measures determined by the event organizers. Severe or repeated violations may lead to further disciplinary action.

16. Additional Rules: In addition to the above rules, the rules of the respective sports shall apply which would be notified at the earliest.

17. Maximum Participation: The maximum participation allowed is for 3 sports (2 team sports, 1 individual sport). Anyone found exceeding the limit of this registration, will be disqualified.

The "Respect and Sportsmanship Rule" is designed to create a positive and inclusive environment at "Umang," ensuring that all participants have an enjoyable and enriching experience while showcasing their talents and fostering good sportsmanship.

Participants, organizers, and attendees are expected to uphold this rule to maintain the integrity of the event and create a memorable and meaningful experience for everyone involved.

The Organizing Committee reserves the right for other rules and also right to amend for the existing set of rules.
