ABOUT
BROWN MOSTEN INTERNATIONAL CLIENT CONSULTATION COMPETITION

The Competition dates back to 1969 when Louis M. Brown established the first Client Counselling Competition for law students. It achieved recognition from the American Bar Association in 1972, and the International Competition was launched in 1985. In 1993, the International Competition was officially named after Louis M. Brown. Subsequently, in May 2010, the competition underwent a transition from "Client Counselling" to "Client Consultation." The Competition is affiliated with the International Bar Association and collaborates closely with law societies and Bar Associations worldwide. Brown Mosten International Client Consultation Competition is an annual competition that brings together winners from National Rounds worldwide. The International Rounds for 2025 will take place in University of Galsgow, Scotland from 08-12 of April 2025. The theme of the competition will be "Consumer and Contract Law." This Competition serves as a valuable platform for law students to enhance their interviewing and counselling skills while interacting with clients to efficiently identify and provide solutions to the Client's problems. This Competition allows students to interact with participants from diverse nations and cultures. Over the past decade, students from more than 30 countries, including Australia, China, Croatia, England and Wales, Germany, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Russia, Sri Lanka, Switzerland, and the United States, have participated in the coveted competition. This year the India-National Rounds of the competition are being organized by Lloyd Law College, Greater Noida.

HON'BLE PRIME MINISTER SHRI NARENDRA MODI at the Constitutional Law Day Celebration by the Law Commission of India and Niti Aayog, Lloyd Law College, provided Technical Support.

ABOUT ICCC 2025 INDIA ROUNDS

The India Rounds of Brown Mosten International Client Consultation Competition shall be hosted by Lloyd Law College, Greater Noida from 14th - 16th Feb. 2025.

Each round of the competition consists of two stages:

1) Client Interviewing and Counselling stage, and

2) Post-interview and Counselling stage without the Client.

In the first stage, participants interview with a person portraying the client. Their main task shall be extracting relevant information, exploring the client's preferred outcome, outlining the nature of the problem, and presenting the client with potential means or a range of alternatives for resolving the issue. The second stage shall be a post-consultation period in which the participants will analyse the interview and discuss the course of action to be undertaken, in the absence of the client.

Both the stages shall be conducted in a period of 35 minutes, in total, wherein the first stage shall be of 25 minutes and the second of 10 minutes.

Judges shall evaluate the participants based on specific criteria such as listening, questioning, planning, and analytical skills in a lawyer-client interview. After the Judges complete their evaluation, the participants may be called back in, by the Judges to provide a feedback of their performance.
