Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

As we all know that Lloyd Law College organizes LTAC every year. It is an intra-college training program for selected students that runs for over six months and is organized every year. This year, i.e., 2022, we are conducting the IVth edition of the LTAC.

It is more a training program in which applications are invited, a group of 40 students is selected and training on all the stages of a criminal matter is given to the participating students. It all begins with the investigation process and ends with the 'final arguments' that are held before the trial court. Participating students play the role of Duty Officer at Police Station, Investigation Officer, Expert, Public Prosecutor, Defense Counsel, and the Accused. At each stage of a criminal matter, we invite an expert to train the participating students on that aspect and then the students participate in the competition while playing the role required at the respective stage.

The LTAC 4.0 was launched in January, 2022 and a team of selected students is ready to undertake this journey of learning and experiencing the real-life things in a simulated environment. They shall begin their participation with playing the role of a Duty Officer and then as an Investigation Officer in the month of March-April, 2022.

Now, we are pleased to announce that journey of 40 selected students to learn & apply the learning of practical aspect of a criminal matter has begun with the 3rd Workshop on Investigation Process in Criminal Matter which is being organized on April 13, 2020. The participants will learn practical aspects of investigation from an expert, i.e., a police officer.
