OPEN CHALLENGE & SELECTION ROUNDS

STETSON INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION, 2024

Dear Parent/Student,

Greetings from Lloyd academic community!

The performance of Lloyd Law College and Lloyd School of Law have been exceptional in International and National Moot Court Competitions conducted across the globe. We have been consistently delivering outstanding results in reputed Moot Court Competitions. It is extremely important for us to maintain this legacy which has been acquired through dedication and hard work. Moreover, keeping in view the need to give a chance to each and every student of the law school in an unbiased manner, we are conducting Open Challenge Selection Rounds in order to decide the composition of the teams which shall participate in the Stetson International Environmental Moot Court Competition, 2024. Open Challenge Selection Rounds shall be conducted to finally decide the teams which shall represent the Lloyd in this moot. Open Challenge Selection Rounds is scheduled to be conducted on the Sunday 06th August 2023.

About Stetson International Environmental Moot Court Competition ::

The Stetson Moot, organized by the Institute of Biodiversity Law and Policy of Stetson University, is the world's leading competition on global environmental law issues such as conservation and sustainability. As it is essentially an international law moot, it simulates proceedings before the International Court of Justice. Judges of the competition are usually environmental law academics and experts. Teams from Europe, Ireland and UK, East Asia, Southeast Asia among others will be competing for the Finals.

Date, Time and Venue ::

The competition shall take place on Sunday 06th August 2023, IST 10 AM, virtually via Zoom meetings. The link will be mailed to all the participants at the day of the competition.
