Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

Lloyd Law College has always led to creating an academic atmosphere which is holistic. It sensitizes its students in terms of gender equality and female safety. In the same pursuit we wish to we wish to celebrate International Women's Day, on Tuesday, 8th March, 2022.

The United Nations celebrated 8th March in 1975, for the first time, as Women's Day. It was in December 1977 that the General Assembly adopted a resolution proclaiming a United Nations Day for Women's Rights and International Peace to be observed. It is a day when women are recognized for their achievements without regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political.

According to the UN Women, the theme for International Women's Day, 2022 (IWD 2022) is 'Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow'. It attempts to recognize the contribution of women and girls around the world, who are leading the charge on climate change adaptation, mitigation, and response, to build a more sustainable future for all.

This year's theme aims to create 'a gender equal world', a world free of bias, stereotypes and discrimination. A world that is diverse, equitable, and inclusive. A world where difference is valued and celebrated. Let us also value, respect and celebrate #BreakTheBias.

Lloyd wishes to celebrate the same theme and asks you to join and stand along with its teachers and students. Join us for a Nukkad Natak and futher, let us all celebrate Women Power, #BreakTheBias.

We welcome you all to come and listen to young woman achievers, Ms. Mahamedhaa Nagar, Spokesperson, BJP Uttar Pradesh and, see the group of Ms. Shilpi Marwah, Theatre Director, Writer, Actor from the Delhi circuit, perform a Nukkad Natak.

Join us and show your respect and solidarity to the other half of the world's population.
