Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Community!

Let's Talk :: "Critical appraisal of law making process in parliament"

Lloyd cultivates diverse inclusive learning and growth of student every time. Social and political understanding is an inbuilt part of legal learning.

"Let's Talk" is an initiative led by our students to stimulate over various social, economic and legal issues. Through series of talks over the last many years, our aim is to increase understanding about laws and discuss to identify the emerging concerns and plausible solutions for the same.

This talk series bring together experts and interested parties of various disciplines on a platform where they can discuss and debate the contemporary and challenging issues of various themes. It provides a platform where prominent jurists, lawyers and academicians and students having expertise and knowledge in various fields can sit together and ponder over them.

Parliament is the supreme law-making body in India. Every year hundreds of bills are tabled, discussed and passed by the Parliament. But what is the proper procedure and process of law making in Indian Parliament is something which needs a greater attention. A new Chapter of Let's Talk is discussing on 'Critical Appraisal of law making process in the Parliament'. The session will broadly cover the law making process in the Parliament which will be followed by a Q & A session.
