Ref.: Email, dt. 30 November 2021 (Sub.: Invitation – National Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition 1.0)

Lloyd Law College has always been keen on students' holistic growth and this has been possible with Lloyd's initiatives of various cells and committees as well as through associations with some renowned organizers of competitions of different kinds- debates, moots, essays, etc. Lloyd Trial Advocacy Competition (LTAC) at Lloyd Law College is one of such event through which practical understanding of the trial advocacy skills is imparted among the participating students.

Considering this all, the Lloyd Law College had introduced a unique learning activity, i.e., Lloyd Criminal Trial Advocacy Competition (L-TAC) for its students in 2018; we have successfully completed three editions of the L-TAC. It gives opportunities to students of the Lloyd Law College to participate and learn practical aspects of the criminal matters via simulation exercises, and to find themselves ready for the profession after completing entire cycle of the L-TAC.
