WINNING WINTER CAMP (WWC)

Mon. 09th – Fri. 13th Jan. 2023

“The Behavioural Pyramid”

Wed.-04-Jan.-2023

Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Center for Learning and Development!

*“For the things we have to learn before we can do them, we learn by doing them.”-
Aristotle*

Education is the reason we develop as a species. It helps us to make major advances in important areas, like medicine and technology. For many, it removes boundaries and opens the door to new opportunities. No matter how tough the world gets, we will always need education. Soft Skills serves the role of a vehicle that delivers education within a defined professional benchmark.

CENTER FOR LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT ::

Center for Learning and Development (Lloyd Law College) is organizing a Winning Winter Camp (WWC) “The Behavioural Pyramid” to chesil the required soft skills aspect for the future ahead. Soft skills are personal attributes that influence how well you can work or interact with others. They are among the top skills employers seek in the candidates they hire, because soft skills are important for just about every job. In essence, they are essential for your success in the workplace, your company’s success and your personal life.

WINNING WINTER CAMP (WWC) ::

The winter camp will take place from Mon. 09th Jan. -to- Fri. 13th Jan. 2023. It will be a experiential based soft skills learning program where the qualitative based evaluation takes place in order to highlight the professional stars. Exciting gifts and appreciations would be given to the best performers on each day based on participation and performance. Consider it as a golden opportunity to walk through the basic soft skills route in case you have missed out previous classroom sessions. WWC will help you bridge your academia and industry gaps and you come out industry, job and life ready after the completion of this program.
