

Teaching Session

Course :- “Indian Economy”

Date :- 23rd April, 2018

Speaker :- Dr. Ranjul Rastogi, Professor of Economics, Galgotia University

This teaching session was organized by Lloyd Law College on the State of Indian Economy. Dr. Ranjul Rastogi was invited to deliver a lecture on the topic.

Dr. Ranjul Rastogi is Ph. D. in Economics from Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur, B.ED. from Avadh University , LL.B. from Allahabad University , M.A. in Economics from Allahabad University, B.A. from Avadh University and Qualified NET twice. NET and NET with JRF.

The session was conducted focusing mainly on the recent trends in the Indian economy.

She also discussed on a wide variety of topics including state of Indian banking system and the alarming rate of increase in NPA's, agriculture as major contributor to Indian economy and state of industry and service sectors in India.

The session was successfully coordinated with the efforts of Dr. Salim.

Indian Economy is taught to the first semester students and this lecture proved to be beneficial to them. The lecture was conducted to guide students in their course. The discussion invited a lot of questions from the students. The students were inquisitive to know more about the role that Reserve bank of India is playing in addressing the situation of NPA's.

