

Extension Lecture Series

Title: - Comparative Jurisprudence and Public International law

Date: - 20th February 2018, 21st February 2018

Speaker/s: - Prof Dr. V.T Thamilmaran, Former Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka , HOD, Department of Public & International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Colombo

Laski says that Jurisprudence is the eye of law Comparative Jurisprudence is the scholarly comparison between the various legal systems existing in the world. An analysis of the civil law and the common law systems of the world is an integral part of the study of comparative jurisprudence. It has also been termed as comparative law. The study of comparative Jurisprudence focuses on theoretical and practical approaches to the wide range of political, legislative, social, economic, and other issues of law. International Law is the study of the various customs and conventions which are legally binding on the civilized state and in their dealing with each other.

Under Extension lecture series , Prof. (Dr.)V.T. Thamilmaran , Former Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka , HOD, Department of Public & International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Colombo, Visiting Fellow in Human Rights Centre, State University of New York at Buffalo, New York, USA, and Faculty of Law, in University of Alberta, Canada and National Universities of India . He delivered lecture on Comparative Jurisprudence and Public International law.

The lectures were scheduled on Tuesday (20th Feb, 2018) and Wednesday (21st February,2018) from 10:00 AM TO 2:30 Pm for the students of 2ND ,4TH and 6TH Semesters of LLB and BA-LLB in Seminar Hall. This workshop allowed the students to have an overview on Comparative Jurisprudence and Public International law which benefitted their understanding of international law.

The session was well coordinated and interactive. The students were exposed to the practical aspect of Jurisprudence and the application of the various theories of the jurists in the International Law Scenario.