

Extension lecture series

Title: - How to organise your Law School.

Date: - 20 July 2018, Friday

Speaker: - Ms. Shriya Maini, Advocate, Delhi High Court, University of Oxford (Exeter College) U.K., Dr. Mrs. Ambuti Sakve Scholar 2014-15, Oxford Global Justice Scholar 2015-16.

The Extension lecture series was organized by Director, Lloyd Law College in order to steer young legal minds into the right pathway. Ms. Shriya Maini was invited to deliver a lecture on 'How to organize your Law School days'.

Ms. Maini is a graduate of Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar. She joined the Dispute Resolution team of erstwhile Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas and Suresh A. Shroff, as an Associate in their law firm. Subsequently, she went ahead to pursue her Bachelors in Civil Law (LLM) on a full scholarship namely Dr. Ms. Ambuti Salve Scholarship 2014-2015 at the University of Oxford, United Kingdom. Ms. Maini is also a recipient of the Oxford Global Justice Award for Public International Law, 2015 – 16 which gave her the opportunity to assist the President of International Residual Mechanism for the Criminal Tribunals ("MICT") at The Hague, Netherlands. Currently, she serves as Visiting Faculty at National Law University, Delhi and Lloyd Law College, Noida. Ms. Maini is an independent consultant for International Law and Legal advisor at the LexQuest Foundation.

In her lecture, the speaker covered diverse topics ranging from her experience of pursuing Masters in Law from the University of Oxford focussing on full scholarship, tips on writing SOPs and Recommendations required to bag scholarships for foreign LL.Ms, Transition from a law firm job to Independent Practice.

Emphasizing upon the importance of writing research papers, she advised the students to actively participate in attending conferences and research based events as they are extensively helpful in networking.

The lecture received an overwhelming response and motivated the students to plan their legal journey right from its inception.