

Guest Lecture Series

Title: - Supreme Court Practice & Procedure

Date: - 14th October 2018

Speaker:- Mr. P.V. Saravananaraja, Advocate-on-Record, Supreme Court of India.

The guest lecture was amongst one of the earnest endeavors by Dr. Md. Salim to enlighten the prospective lawyers about Supreme Court Practice and Procedure. Mr. P.V. Saravananaraja was invited to address the students of ninth semester B.A. LL.B. program.

With an illustrious career spanning over a decade in the Supreme Court, the speaker spoke on the issues regarding the importance of getting a hands-on experience in legal procedure versus classroom curricula, his experience of practicing before numerous fora and battling pressure in high profile lawsuits. He also shared with the students his inspiring journey to the Supreme Court of India.

The speaker advised the budding lawyers that the road to success in legal profession has no short cut. The lecture received an overwhelming response from the students. It was concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Salim in which he also stressed upon the importance of honesty and hard work in the profession. Honesty, he pointed out, is important in the profession and success follows to those who are honest.
