

GUEST LECTURE SERIES

Title: - “Teaching Sessions of Law of Torts and Criminal Laws”

Date: - 12-19 February, 2018

Speaker: - Mr. Girjesh Shukla, Professor at Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla

Law and economics represented the culmination of various strands in the history of torts, providing a coherent and seemingly powerful lens through which tort law could be viewed. That efficiency and the maximization of aggregate wealth guided economic analysis TEACHING SESSIONS ON LAW OF TORTS –was conducted for 2nd, 4th, 6th and 8th Semesters in Lloyd law college on 12th to 19th February, 2018 in MOOT COURT HALL II from 9:00am to 11:30am by Mr. Girjesh Shukla, Professor at Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla who has also taught in Delhi University. He has authored 7 books including Criminology (LexisNexis); Tax Law - I & II (LexisNexis); Handbook on Criminal Procedure. Dr. Shukla has also worked as a Researcher for Supreme Court of India on Project “Supreme Court Re-statement of Law-Public Interest Litigation”. The students enthusiastically participated in discussion regarding its application.